Response Number 311

Q.1 What are your views on the proposal to introduce real-time reporting for B2B and B2G transactions?

Im anxious it will be more work for me, now its my accountant who deals with taxes. I have no register, just issuing few invoices to my clients.

Q.2 What matters should be considered in planning for a transition to a new VAT Reporting system?

That not everyone is tech savvy, Im from older generation.

Q.3 If your business is currently subject to a VAT reporting programme in another EU or non-EU country, can you please share best practice, recommendations or lessons learnt?

N/A

Q.4 Have you any observations, concerns or recommendations on a move to mandatory electronic invoicing for B2B & B2G domestic VAT transactions?

I have no observations, as I have not experienced it yet.

Q.5 Revenue is particularly interested in hearing views from businesses that are already engaged in eInvoicing Public Bodies within Ireland or engaged in B2B eInvoicing throughout Europe and beyond. How did you prepare and what challenges prevailed in your preparations for eInvoicing?

Im sending my invoices by email to my clients, so this question isprobably not for me.

Q.6 What suggestions would you offer in Ireland's arrangements for a mandatory B2B and B2G eInvoicing programme?

I will be definately challenge for me to learn new technical things.

Q.7 Revenue are cognisant that small businesses may have different perspectives and requirements to large businesses, so what information prompts would you find useful for businesses in completing the VAT return?

At present my accountant dealing with my VAT, so I have no idea.
