Notes to be read in conjunction with Tax Repayment Claim Form for
Trusts/Estates, Encashment Tax and Ulster Bank Bonds.
Form IC9

What supporting documentation do I need to send with my claim?

The following additional documentation is also required where appropriate when claiming tax paid:-

On Trust/Estates:

- Copy of the documentation setting up the Trust/Estate e.g. a copy of the Will/Grant of Probate/Trust Deed.
- Form R185 claim form completed by the Trustees. (R185 claim form is a statement to the effect that on paying income to the non-resident, tax was deducted at the standard rate).

On Encashment Tax:

- A “Foreign Income Advice and Irish Tax Certificate” (Form 1 F.D.)
This confirms details of the dividend payments including its source and the amount of Irish tax deducted together with the accompanying certificate that the tax so deducted either has or will be paid over to Revenue. This document is issued by the Encashment Agent/ Intermediary. (It does not have to specify in what country the securities are based, once it is clear they are foreign securities).

On Ulster Bank Bonds formerly First Active PLC Subordinated Bonds:

- Refund of Irish tax already paid will be processed on receipt of the certified claim form and the original Interest Bond vouchers.
- Non-resident Individual and Non-resident Bodies who hold the above interest bonds are entitled since March 1 1998 to claim an exemption from withholding tax provided they are resident in a country with which Ireland has a Double Tax Agreement which provides for such relief.

For residents of USA only:

A certificate of residence for United States tax purposes (Form 6166) is required for each year claimed. This form is available from The Department of The Treasury, Internal Revenue Service, Philadelphia, PA 19255. Please log onto www.irs.gov to apply for Form 6166.

For residents of Spain only:

A certificate of residence (Residencia Fiscal en Espana) is required. This form is available from your local Spanish Tax Authority.

Additional Notes:

Time Limits for Making a Claim:

Section 17 of the Finance Act 2003 sets out time limits for the submission of repayment claims to the Irish Revenue, i.e. claims may only be made within four years following the end of the calendar year in which the tax was deducted.

How Repayments will be made:

All repayments will be made electronically to a specified Bank Account (see section on Page 1).
