This is a junior management position which offers an excellent opportunity to build a career in Revenue and to experience a wide variety of work, which may include the following:

- Tax, excise and customs related audits and compliance work including the use of electronic audit techniques.
- Working both individually and as part of a team to confront non-compliance.
- Contributing to the development of tax and customs policy.
- Advising on interpretation of taxation and customs law and practice.
- Using data and statistical analysis to assist in risk identification.
- Managing staff performance as required.

Applicants should note that Revenue is a responsive and agile organisation and, as such, they may be assigned to projects and other duties appropriate to the role of Executive Officer in Tax, Audit and Compliance.

We sponsor and support many additional training courses including those leading to recognised qualifications. In addition to the bespoke technical training outlined below, Revenue offers a range of enhanced support for employees who wish to pursue professional qualifications in their relevant fields. These supports include a generous study leave allocation for attending lectures and preparing for exams, extra tutorials, and access to subject matter experts, as well as peer learning and support throughout the process.

Technical Training

This includes practical training carrying out Revenue interventions; and may include an academic qualification on a course accredited by a recognised academic institution and/ or professional body, on which you will be required to successfully complete all relevant exams and course work. The training covers many areas of tax and customs law and procedures, takes approximately three years to complete and is specifically aimed at providing Executive Officers with the technical skills to undertake the full range of Revenue compliance work. This training is delivered via a blended delivery model and there will be an element of in-person classroom attendance required. The location for this in-person training will be determined by the members in each group. While Revenue will try to accommodate training locally, an element of travel may be required. In such cases, the normal rules relating to travel and subsistence will apply.

Examples of practical elements of the programme may include:

- Business taxes audit of both chargeable persons and companies.

Working for Revenue - What Our Staff Think

'I joined Revenue in 2022 as an Executive Officer (EO), after applying for positions in Tax, Audit and Compliance. I previously worked in the private sector in a variety of accountancy roles, completing the ITI Taxation Technician course and achieving an ACCA qualification during this time. On commencement of my role as an EO I was placed on a comprehensive training programme which took the qualifications and skills that I already had into account and prepared me for my role as a Compliance Officer with Revenue.

As a Compliance Officer in Personal Division, I am part of a team which undertakes compliance interventions on PAYE taxpayers. My role is to review taxpayers' records in the context of identified risk areas and make recommendations as to whether an intervention is required to confirm that a taxpayer's affairs are in order. If my manager agrees that an intervention is required, I then work the case, interacting with either the taxpayer directly or through their agent. In some instances, a taxpayer's tax record may need to be adjusted as credits/ reliefs were claimed incorrectly, it is my responsibility to quantify if any monies are owing resulting from these adjustments and arrange the collection of same. It's a very interesting role, no two cases are the same and no two days are the same!

I can honestly say that my role in Revenue has turned out to be exactly what I hoped it would be, it is a family friendly organisation which promotes a good work-life balance through flexible work options along with a clear route for career progression.'

Marie, Executive Officer.

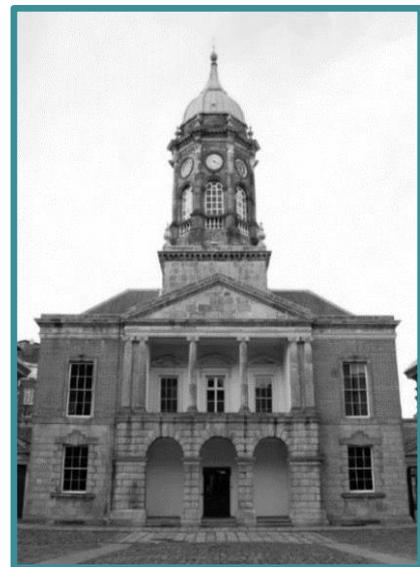

'I joined Revenue 18 months ago as an Executive Officer in Tax, Audit and Compliance. Previously, I only worked in the private sector, so after joining Revenue I was pleasantly surprised that work-life balance can actually exist. My day-to-day work with Revenue compliance interventions is varied and keeps challenging me every day. I get to do research on the legislation, investigate books and records, and communicate with taxpayers and their advisors. I have found a little forensic investigator in me and find real pleasure in the work I do. Knowing that my work makes a difference – other than to the shareholders' profit – is really meaningful to me. I also get to work in an amazing team, where we support each other's development and work together towards our goals.'

Anni, Executive Officer.

'I have been working in Revenue for just over two years as an Executive Officer in Tax, Audit and Compliance, within the Personal Division of the Compliance Branch.

My role involves identifying risks through appraisals of various cases, such as PAYE credit claims, rental cases, and share-based cases, all while encouraging compliance.

The nature of the work is incredibly varied and interesting, with no two cases being the same.

The atmosphere within our section is supportive, and we are always encouraged to ask questions, which makes the work environment both welcoming and collaborative. Additionally, the role presents ongoing challenges that continually help me develop professionally.

Revenue places a strong emphasis on training and personal development. The support available to help us continually learn and grow in our roles is exceptional. In my first two years, I completed the Certificate in Taxation with the Irish Tax Institute (ITI), which was a great foundation course to help me gain a solid understanding of the different areas of tax. Revenue is very supportive when it comes to training, study time, and exams. There is also a variety of courses available on the learning platform which allows us to tailor our development, with opportunities to explore areas of interest, such as learning Irish, which Revenue fully accommodates.

I also appreciate the flexibility that Revenue offers, including blended working as well as flexitime and the ability to build up time for leave. This flexibility allows for a good work-life balance, which is incredibly valuable.

Overall, working in Revenue has been a rewarding experience, providing both the opportunity for personal growth and professional development, all while offering a supportive and flexible work environment.'

John, Executive Officer.

is available, the candidate's competency will be tested when coming under consideration for assignment.

7 Selection Methods

7.1 Potential Selection Methods

These may include some or all of the following:

- An Eligibility Sift.
- Shortlisting of candidates based on the information contained in their application form.
- Online assessment tests.
- A competitive interview (final stage) via MS Teams based on the essential competencies required for the post and the information contained in the applicant's application form. This may include a presentation relevant to the role (topic will be identified when candidates are scheduled for interview).

Candidates are not permitted to use any type of recording equipment at any stage of the selection process. This applies to any form of sound recording and any type of still picture or video recording, whether including sound recording or not, and covers any type of device used for these purposes.

7.2 Assessment Boards

An assessment board, or boards, will be set up by Revenue to conduct any interim selection processes and interviews.

7.3 Selection Stages

It is important to note that candidates must reach the required standard in any interim selection stage, to be considered suitable for progression to the next stage of the selection process. Candidates progressed to final interview stage must meet a minimum standard of 55% in each scoring area, to be considered for inclusion on the panel.

7.4 Panel

A panel<sup>1</sup> will be established from this competition to fill positions that may arise over the lifetime of the panel. This panel will expire one year from the date of its establishment.

Placement on a panel is not a guarantee of appointment to a position.

It is important to note that:

- Once an offer is accepted, the candidate will not be considered for any other appointment from the panel.
- If an offer of a post in a location is declined, the candidate may not be considered for the declined location again; but may remain on the panel in consideration for offers of posts arising in other locations.

7.5 Job Posts

Candidates who are successful in this competition may be offered posts in other government departments, or elsewhere in Revenue as appropriate, in accordance with business needs. Candidates who decline posts in other government departments will remain eligible for consideration of posts in Revenue in accordance with section 7.4.

Examples of adjustments we provide include the use of assistive technology, extra time, scribes and/ or readers or a range of other accommodations.

Please be assured that having a disability or requiring adjustments will not impact on your progress in the selection process; you will not be at a disadvantage if you disclose your disability or requirements to us. Your disability and/ or adjustments will be kept entirely confidential.

If a candidate requires any reasonable accommodations to be made at any stage of the selection process, the candidate should set out the requirement on the application form and

<sup>1</sup> The term panel refers to a group of successful candidates who have been ranked in order of merit based on interview performance/ total score.

Revenue will endeavour to make the necessary arrangements. Alternatively, candidates can email CSDOpenRecruitment@revenue.ie. Requests for reasonable accommodations must be outlined in advance; any matters brought to attention afterwards may not be taken into consideration.

7.7 Application Form

During any shortlisting exercise that may be employed, a board will examine the application form and assess it against pre-determined criteria based on the requirements of the position. It is, therefore, in a candidate's interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of their qualifications and experience on the application form.

It is important to note that while a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, it may be decided that a smaller number will be called to the next stage of the selection process.

In this respect, the shortlisting board(s) will select a group who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be most suitable for the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates, who based on their application, appear to have more relevant experience.

Please note that while verbal feedback will not be provided following a shortlisting process, all unsuccessful candidates will receive their scores along with a feedback comment from the shortlisting board.

8 Availability and Admission

8.1 Availability

During the selection process, the onus is on all applicants to make themselves available on the date(s) specified by Revenue and to make whatever arrangements are necessary to ensure that they receive communications sent to them at the contact details specified on their application form. Revenue will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates. The admission of a person to a competition, or invitation to attend interview, or a successful result letter, is not to be taken as implying that Revenue is satisfied that such a person fulfils the requirements or is not disqualified by law from holding the position.

8.2 Suitability for a Post (or Admission)

Prior to confirming any candidate for appointment from this panel, Revenue will make all such enquiries as are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed, a final determination cannot be made, nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

9 Confidentiality

Protecting confidentiality is a priority. Revenue guarantees that all enquiries, applications, and all aspects of the proceedings are treated as strictly confidential and are not disclosed to anyone, outside those directly involved in the competition process. Revenue will not contact referees, employers, or previous employers without a candidate's consent and then only if the candidate concerned comes under consideration for appointment.

10 Code of Practice

This competition is being organised in accordance with the Code of Practice entitled Appointment to Positions in the Civil Service and Public Service published by the Commission for Public Service Appointments (CPSA). Revenue will consider any requests for review in accordance with the provisions of this code which may be accessed at www.cpsa.ie.

Revenue is an equal opportunities employer. Assignments will be made on the basis of qualifications and the ability to carry out the responsibilities of the grade or post.

10.1 Review and Complaint Procedures under the CPSA Code of Practice

If a candidate is unhappy following the outcome of any stage of a selection process, they can either:

1. Request a Review of a decision made during the process.
- OR
2. Make a Complaint that the selection process followed was unfair.

A candidate can follow either one of the two procedures in relation to the same aspect of a selection process, but not both. Where a review of a selection process has taken place under Section 7 of the Code of Practice, a complainant may not seek a further review of the same process under Section 8 of the Code of Practice, other than in the most exceptional circumstances that will be determined by the Commission for Public Service Appointments (CPSA) at its sole discretion.

There is no obligation on Revenue to suspend an appointment process while a review or complaint is being considered. However, the CPSA expects that, where possible, Revenue will intervene in cases where it finds an error is likely to have occurred.

Canvassing will disqualify and will result in exclusion from the process. Candidates must not:

- Knowingly or recklessly provide false information.
- Canvass any person with or without inducements.
- Interfere with or compromise the process in any way. A third party must not impersonate a candidate at any stage of the process.

11.2 Contravening Canvassing Provisions

Any person who contravenes the responsibilities and obligations set out in Sections 4.3 of the Code of Practice, or who assists another person in contravening those provisions, is committing an offence. Such a person is liable to prosecution that may result in a fine, imprisonment or both. In addition, where a person found guilty of such offence was or is a candidate in a recruitment process, then, where a candidate:

- Has not been appointed to a post, they will be disqualified as a candidate.
- Has been appointed subsequently from the recruitment process in question, they shall forfeit that appointment.

12 Quality Customer Service

We aim to provide an excellent service to all our customers. If, for any reason, a candidate is unhappy with any aspect of the service received from us, Revenue will fully consider the matter when it is brought to our attention.

Feedback will be provided to candidates on written request. Candidates may wish to familiarise themselves with the guidance on feedback provided in the CPSA Casebook. In its casebook, the CPSA encourages candidates who are keen to learn from their participation in an appointment process to reflect on the manner in which they demonstrated the competencies. Following an interview, it can be helpful to note down the key questions asked as well as a brief summary of the responses provided.

13 Data Protection Acts 1988-2018

When an application form is received, Revenue creates a record in the name of the applicant, which contains much of the personal information supplied in the application. This personal record is used solely in processing the person's candidature. Such information held is subject to the rights and obligations set out in the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018 (the Data Protection legislation). To make a request under the Data Protection legislation, please submit your request in writing to: The Data Protection Unit, Corporate Services Division, Dublin Castle, Dublin 2. Further information on Data Protection in Revenue is available at the following links: Revenue Data Protection and Candidate and Assignment Data Protection Statements.

Certain items of information, not specific to any individual, are extracted from computer records for general statistical purposes.

Prior to completion of the probationary contract, a decision will be made as to whether or not a person will be retained pursuant to Section 5A(2) Civil Service Regulation Acts 1956-2005. This decision will be based on performance assessed against the criteria set out in (i) to (ii) above. The detail of the probationary process will be explained to the person by Revenue and the person will be given a copy of the Department of Public Expenditure NDP Delivery and Reform guidelines on probation.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraphs in this section, the probationary contract may be terminated at any time prior to the expiry of the term of the contract by either side in accordance with the Minimum Notice and Terms of Employment Acts, 1973 to 2005.

In the following circumstances your contract may be extended, and your probation period suspended:

- The probationary period stands suspended when an employee is absent due to Maternity or Adoptive Leave.
- In relation to an employee absent on Parental Leave or Carers Leave, the employer may require probation to be suspended if the absence is not considered to be consistent with the continuation of the probation.
- Any other statutory provision providing that probation shall -
  - (i) stand suspended during an employee's absence from work, and
  - (ii) be completed by the employee on the employee's return from work after such absence.

Where probation is suspended, Revenue will notify you of the circumstances relating to the suspension.

If an appointee who fails to satisfy the conditions of probation has been a serving civil servant immediately prior to their appointment from this competition, the issue of reversion will normally arise. In the event of reversion, an officer will return to a vacancy in their former grade in their former Department.

17.4 Superannuation and Retirement

The successful candidate will be offered the appropriate superannuation terms and conditions as prevailing in the Civil Service at the time of being offered an appointment. In general, an appointee who has never worked in the Public Service will be offered appointment based on membership of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme (“Single Scheme”). Full details of the Scheme are at www.singlepensionscheme.gov.ie.

Where the appointee has worked in a pensionable (non-Single Scheme terms) public service job in the 26 weeks prior to appointment or is currently on a career break or special leave with/without pay, different terms may apply. The pension entitlement of such appointees will be established in the context of their public service employment history.

Key provisions attaching to membership of the Single Scheme are as follows:

- Pensionable Age: The minimum age at which pension is payable is the same as the age of eligibility for the State Pension, currently 66
- Retirement Age: Scheme members must retire on reaching the age of 70

- Post retirement pension increases are linked to the CPI.

Please note: In applying for this position, you are acknowledging that you understand that the abatement provisions, where relevant, will apply. Pension payments will, however, be resumed on the ceasing of such employment or on the person's 60th birthday, whichever is the later, but on resumption, the pension will be based on the person's actual reckonable service as a teacher (i.e., the added years previously granted will not be taken into account in the calculation of the pension payment).
