The European Union has adopted a further package of sanctions, Council Regulation \(EU\) 2022/1904, in view of the ongoing situation as a result of Russia's military action in Ukraine. The additional measures are summarised below:

The Regulation prohibits the sale, supply, transfer or export, directly or indirectly, to any natural or legal person, entity or body in Russia or for use in Russia of the following:

- Firearms and their parts and essential components and ammunition as listed in Annex 1 to Regulation \(EU\) No 258/2012

The Regulation amends Council Regulation \(EU\) 833/2014 with the following

- An expansion of the export of Dual Use goods and Technology as listed in Annex VII.
- An expansion of the import prohibition on a wide range of products and commodities which generate significant revenues for Russia as listed in Annex XXI.
- An expansion of the export prohibition on goods and technology in the aviation and space sector as listed in Annex XI.
- An expansion of the import prohibition on iron and steel products as listed in XVII.
- An expansion of the import prohibition of goods which generate significant revenues for Russia as listed in annex XXI.
- An expansion of the export prohibition on goods which contribute to Russian industrial capabilities as listed in Annex XXIII.

These are in addition to existing controls on dual-use goods and technology as provided for in Regulation 2021/821.

The Taric database will be updated in the coming days to give effect to these sanctions. Further guidance will be provided at the earliest opportunity on how to avail of exemptions provided for by the Regulation. In the interim, you are advised not to attempt to import or export the goods listed in the Regulation.
