

Deed of Covenant

Part 31-01-01

Document last reviewed June 2023

Does not reflect current Revenue position.

A Deed of Covenant is a legally binding written agreement to pay an agreed amount to another person.

The tax treatment of Deeds of Covenant is outlined in Part 31, Chapter 1 of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997.

Further information on Deeds of Covenant is available on our website at this link.

The following material is either exempt from or not required to be published under the Freedom of Information Act 2014.

[...]

Does not reflect current Revenue position.
Most recent version of this manual.