Prosecution & Penalty Programmes

Introduction

The Dedicated Enforcement Unit/Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit in the Collector-General's Division, Limerick, pursues Prosecution and Penalty programmes to deal with the non filing of VAT 3 and P35 (incl. LPT) returns. The relevant units and legislation are as follows:

C-G's DEU/Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit - VAT Prosecution: Criminal Prosecutions - S.1078 TCA 1997

C-G's DEU/ Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit - P35 (incl. LPT)/VAT Compliance:

- Civil Penalties – S. 987 TCA 1997
- S 115 Value-Added Tax Consolidation Act 2010
- S 987(1A) TCA 1997
- S 145 (2) Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012

Instructions and guidelines for referral of cases are set out below as follows:

Part 1 - Criminal Prosecution Proceedings

Part 2 – Collector-General's Penalty Programme

Part 1 – Collector-General’s Prosecution Programme

1. VAT - Criminal Prosecution Programme

- 1.1 Prosecution is contingent on evidence that there is serious non-compliance and/or a definite expectation that a substantial liability will be quantified on receipt of the relevant return(s).

Part 2 – Collector-General’s Penalty Programme

1. Referral of Non-Compliant Cases to DEU/Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit - P35/VAT Compliance

1.1 DEU/Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit also manages the civil penalty process for late or non-filing of P35 or VAT3 returns. A civil penalty can also be imposed on an Employer who fails to make a return as provided for in Section 79 of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012 where a direction under Section 65 of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012 had been received.

Cases suitable for the imposition of such penalties can be referred to DEU/Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit. When a penalty is imposed on a customer, the Prosecutions Unit issues a Penalty Notice initially, i.e. a final request for payment of the penalty. Copies of the Penalty Notices for PAYE/PRSI, VAT and LPT are at Appendices 5, 6 and 7

In the absence of any agreement that the taxpayer is liable to the penalty or following failure by a taxpayer to pay an ‘agreed’ penalty, DEU/Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit, if still of the opinion that the taxpayer is liable to a penalty, will issue a written notice of that opinion to the taxpayer in the form of a Notice of Opinion. Before the notice of Opinion issues, written approval must be obtained from the Principal Officer.

The Notice of Opinion will include details of;

- (a) the provisions under which the penalty arises
- (b) the circumstances in which that person is liable to the penalty
- (c) the amount of the penalty to which that person is liable
- (d) any other details DEU/Penalties and VAT Prosecutions Unit considers necessary

There is an agreement phase for both notices, 21 days for the Penalty Notice and a statutory 30 days for the Notice of Opinion, to allow for agreement and payment of the penalty or an appeal against the penalty.

Annual VAT return

Dear Sir/Madam,

According to my records you have failed to submit your annual VAT return for the year ended xxxxxxx

It is a condition of your participation in the Direct Debit Scheme that returns, together with any balancing payment which may be due, are received by the due date, i.e. the 19th of the month following the end of your accounting period.

Unless your returns and balancing payment, if applicable, are forwarded directly to me within fourteen days, your authorisation to participate in the Direct Debit Scheme will be reviewed and may be terminated. An estimate of the tax due may be raised by the Revenue Commissioners in accordance with Section 110 of the Value Added Tax Act 2010 as amended.

I wish to advise you that, if you fail to file the outstanding VAT3 returns within the timeframe allowed, you may be prosecuted for non-submission of these returns. On conviction, you will be liable to a fine up to a maximum of €5,000 on each summons, to a term of imprisonment, or both the fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Judge.

Therefore I strongly recommend that you give this matter your urgent attention.

Yours faithfully,

Joseph Howley

Dear Sir/Madam,

It appears from my records that you have failed in your statutory duty as an employer to file a P35 return on or before 15th February 20xx, in accordance with Regulation 31 of the Income Tax (Employments)(Consolidated) Regulations, 2001. The return in question refers to the tax year 01/01/20xx – 31/12/20xx.

As a consequence of this failure, you may be liable to a penalty of «Penalty_Amount_Demanded»

If you agree that this penalty is due, you should make a payment of this amount to the Revenue Commissioners by sending the payment with a copy of this letter within 21 days of the date of this letter to Penalty Payments, Office of the Collector-General, Sarsfield House, Francis Street, Limerick.

If you fail to agree that the penalty is due and do not pay the penalty amount, then 21 days after the date of this letter, a Notice of Opinion will be issued to you pursuant to Section 1077B - Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997 with a view to an application being made to the Court for that Court to determine whether a liability to a penalty arises.

This means that Revenue will ask the Courts to decide if you are liable for a penalty.

Yours faithfully,

Joseph Howley
Collector-General

Penalty Notice for VAT

Dear Sir/Madam,

It appears from my records that you have failed in your statutory duty as an accountable person to file a VAT 3 Return Form on or before the 19th day of the month immediately following the accounting period, in accordance with Part 9 Chapter 3 of the Value-Added Tax Consolidation Act, 2010 and Regulation 24 of the Value-Added Tax Regulations, 2010. The return in question refers to the taxable period «Taxable Period».

As a consequence of this failure, you may be liable to a penalty of «Penalty_Amount_Demanded» pursuant to Section 115 of the Value Added Tax Consolidation Act, 2010.

If you agree that this penalty is due, you should make a payment of this amount to the Revenue Commissioners by sending the payment with a copy of this letter within 21 days of the date of this letter to Penalty Payments, Office of the Collector-General, Sarsfield House, Francis Street, Limerick.

If you fail to agree that the penalty is due and do not pay the penalty amount, then 21 days after the date of this letter, a Notice of Opinion will be issued to you pursuant to Section 1077B of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997 with a view to an application being made to the Court for that Court to determine whether a liability to a penalty arises.

This means that Revenue will ask the Courts to decide if you are liable to a penalty.

Yours faithfully,

Penalty Notice for failure of employer to make a return to the Collector General as provided for in Section 79 Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012

Dear Sir/Madam,

It appears from my records that you have failed in your statutory duty as an employer to deduct and pay over LPT having been instructed to do so under Section 65 of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012. As provided for in Section 79 of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012 an Employer is obliged to make a return showing details of LPT deducted from an employee where a direction under Section 65 of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012 has been received. The return in question refers to the tax year <01/01/20xx to 31/12/20xx>.

As per Section 145 (2) of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012, you may be liable to a penalty of €500 for each month or part of a month during which the said statement remains outstanding, subject to a maximum penalty of €3,000.

«Penalty_Amount_Demanded»

If you agree that this penalty is due, you should make a payment of this amount to the Revenue Commissioners by sending the payment with a copy of this letter within 21 days of the date of this letter to: Penalty Payments, Office of the Collector-General, Sarsfield House, Francis Street, Limerick.

If you fail to agree that the penalty is due and do not pay the penalty amount, then 21 days after the date of this letter, a Notice of Opinion will be issued to you pursuant to Section 1077B of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997 with a view to an application being made to the Court for that Court to determine whether a liability to a penalty arises.

This means that Revenue will ask the Courts to decide if you are liable for a penalty.

Yours faithfully,

Joseph Howley

Dear Sir/Madam,

I note from our records that the <outstanding return> has now been filed, thank you.

As the return was not filed by the due date you are liable to pay the penalty. However, following a review of your case the Revenue Commissioners are prepared to accept <€ amount> in settlement of the liability to this penalty.

If you agree in writing with this settlement offer please forward your payment via ROS or as an alternative you may send a cheque, payable to the Collector-General, with a copy of this letter to Collector-General, Sarsfield House, Francis Street, Limerick, on or before <date 14 days after date of letter>.

If you do not agree and pay this settlement offer an application will be made to a relevant court for that court to determine whether a liability to the original penalty of €4,000 arises.

Yours sincerely,
