1 Introduction

The Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment (DETE) is the competent authority in Ireland with responsibility for implementing the various measures that have been adopted concerning trade sanctions.

In response to the ongoing situation in Ukraine the EU has introduced a number of restrictive measures in relation to the Donetsk, Kherson, Luhansk and Zaphorizhzhia oblasts of Ukraine, Russia and Belarus. The overall sanctions packages comprise targeted restrictive measures on a number of individuals and entities, restrictions on economic relations with the Donetsk and Luhansk oblasts, financial restrictions against Russia and a number of import and export prohibitions in relation to Russia and Belarus.

Revenue's Customs Service assists DETE in the control of imports and exports subject to these measures and have implemented customs controls to give effect to these measures.

2 Legislation

The full list of items to which the restrictions apply is specified in the Annexes to the EU Regulations:

On 23rd February 2022, The European Union adopted a package of sanctions Council Regulation (EU) 2022/263 in response to the decision by the Russian Federation to recognise the non-government-controlled areas of the Donetsk and Luhansk oblasts of Ukraine as independent entities. On 6 October 2022, Council Regulation (EU) 2022/1903 introduced a further package of sanctions, to extend the scope of the restrictions contained in to cover all the non-governmental controlled areas of Ukraine in the oblasts of Donetsk, Kherson, Luhansk and Zaporizhzhia

6 Circumvention

The restrictive measures implemented by the EU against the Russian Federation and Belarus in view of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine, must be implemented effectively, both by EU competent authorities and by EU economic operators.

The measures ban the direct or indirect import or export of specific goods, and prohibit the participation in, knowingly or intentionally, activities to circumvent these prohibitions. They also require Member States to apply penalties to any infringements of these regulations.

In view of the possibility of circumvention, economic operators in the EU are advised to take adequate steps to prevent circumvention of the measures:

- When exporting goods, traders should pay particular attention to exports to third countries where such goods may be diverted easily towards, or subsequently sold to a trader in Russia or Belarus. Particular attention must be paid to exports of sanctioned goods to countries of the Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU) which is composed of the Federation of Russia, the Republic of Belarus, and the Republics of Armenia and Kazakhstan, and the Kyrgyz Republic, as goods in any member of the EAEU are in free circulation throughout the EAEU.
- When importing goods from third countries, importers should pay particular attention to their origin as sanctioned goods can be diverted via a third country to the EU. Specifically, where third countries do not apply restrictions on their imports from Russia and Belarus. Particular care should be applied to goods imported from other EAEU countries, as goods in any member of the EAEU are considered in free circulation throughout the EAEU.

Exporters and importers are advised to take steps to ensure that their import and export contracts include provisions to ensure that any imported or exported goods do not originate in or are not ultimately destined for Russia or Belarus. These provisions may for example be a statement that compliance with this provision is an essential element of the contract, or contractual clauses committing the importer in third countries not to export the goods concerned to Russia or Belarus, and not to resell the goods to any third-party business partner that in turn does not make a commitment that the goods will not be subsequently exported to Russia or Belarus.
