IMPORTANT NOTES

<sup>3</sup> This declaration must be signed by either the beneficial owner or the person to whom the interest is payable on behalf of the beneficial owner. In the case of a company the declaration must be signed by the company secretary or other such authorised officer. Where the declaration is signed under power of attorney, a copy of the power of attorney must be furnished in support of the signature.

<sup>4</sup> State whether you are signing as beneficial owner or as the person to whom the interest is payable on behalf of the beneficial owner.

This is a Revenue authorised declaration. It is subject to inspection by Revenue. It is an offence to make a false declaration.

A relevant person is:

- (a) the person by or through whom the interest is paid, or
- (b) a banker or any other person in the State who receives or obtains payment of Eurobond interest for another person by means of presenting coupons, or
- (c) a bank in the state which sells or otherwise realises coupons and pays over the proceeds to another person or carries them into an account for another person, or
- (d) a dealer in coupons who purchases coupons.

Residence - Individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if s/he:

- (1) spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year;
- (2) has a combined presence of 280 days or more in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day.

Residence – Company

A company which has its central management and control in Ireland (the State) is resident in the State irrespective of where it is incorporated. A company is tax resident in the State if it was incorporated in Ireland unless the company is treated as a tax resident of another jurisdiction and not a tax resident of Ireland under a Double Taxation Agreement between Ireland and that jurisdiction.
