

Application of Part 41A – Full self-assessment

Part 41A-01-02

This manual should be read in conjunction with Part 41A Taxes Consolidation Act 1997.

Document last reviewed November 2024

Part 41A Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 (TCA) provides for the full self-assessment regime. This means it is the taxpayer's responsibility to complete a self-assessment and determine how much tax (including any surcharge) they owe.

Periods affected

The full self-assessment regime applies:

- for corporation tax payers, to accounting periods starting on or after 1 January 2013 and all future periods
- for income tax payers, to the year of assessment 2013 and all future years of assessment.

Taxes covered

The taxes covered by the full self-assessment regime, as provided for in section 959A TCA, are:

- income tax
- corporation tax
- capital gains tax
- the domicile levy
- the universal social charge
- any other levy or charge which is placed under the care and management of the Revenue Commissioners (for example, PRSI).
